

COLUMBUS STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
POLICY AND PROCEDURES MANUAL

NON-RESIDENT CREDIT

Effective June 26, 2000

Policy No. 5-11

Page 1 of 1

- (A) Non-resident credit is credit earned for other than classroom, laboratory, clinical, or internship study offered by the college.
- (B) Additional credit shall not be required when credit has been granted for non-resident work.
- (C) Non-resident credit may be granted for: transfer, departmental and standardized national examinations; military schools and work experiences; civilian work experiences; university extension; company training programs; professional seminars; self-study leading to certification or licensing; formal, non-credit continuing education courses; and other like experiences.
- (D) Guidelines for granting credit for non-resident study shall be in accordance with procedures adopted by the college. Necessary documentation and criteria for awarding of non-resident credit shall be established by the appropriate department.