

COLUMBUS STATE

COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Ohio Revised Code 3345.0214(A)

(1) The College has complied with R.C. 3345.0212* by taking the following actions:

- The College does not prohibit any member of the Campus Community from engaging in noncommercial expressive activity on campus, so long as the individual's conduct is lawful and does not materially and substantially disrupt the functioning of the institution.
- The College does not charge a security fee to any students or student groups based on the content of their expression, the content of the expression of their invited guest, or the anticipated reaction to an invited guest's expression.
- The College's policy on harassment conforms to the definition provided in R.C. 3345.0211.
- The College has published on its website, and in its orientation programs the policies, regulations, and expectations of students regarding free expression on campus.
- The College has developed and distributed materials, programs, and procedures about the policies, regulations, and duties of the institution regarding free expression on campus to individuals responsible for the education or discipline of students.

(2) The College has complied with R.C. 3345.0213 by taking the following actions:

- The College does not limit Campus Community speech to "free speech zones" or designate Outdoor Areas of Campuses where expressive activities are prohibited.
- The College has published view-point and content-neutral time, place and manner restrictions that provide for ample alternative means for expressive activity that allow for members of the campus community to spontaneously and contemporaneously assemble and distribute material.

(3) The College provides the following description of any barriers to or incidents of disruption of free expression occurring on campus, including attempts to block or prohibit speakers and any investigation of students or student groups on the basis of expression, including the nature of each barrier or incident and the disciplinary action, if any, taken against members of the campus community determined to be responsible for the barriers or incidents:

- The college received one (1) legal action, filed August 2021, alleging a violation of free expression.
- There have been no attempts to block or prohibit speakers.
- There have been no investigations of any students or student groups on the basis of expression.

* All terms used in this report conform to the definitions provided in ORC 3345.0211
