(2) Staff Employee of the Year was Heather Crites, Multimedia Database Web Developer; Pat Campbell was the Staff Employee of the Month for July.

(3) Updates:

- Meetings have been scheduled with all of the academic departments for open-ended discussions on the provost search, the semester conversion and other issues. Most of faculty meetings should be completed by end of August.

- The president is in the process of having initial discussions with both staff and faculty in anticipation of another enrollment surge to find ways to be better prepared in areas such as staffing, parking, space, etc.

- Meetings with the consultant regarding the semester conversion process are progressing.

- The president has met with Mayor Coleman, and Senate President Bill Harris. He will be meeting with John Wolfe and Mike Curtin at the Dispatch next week.

- Meetings have been scheduled with several college presidents, as well as with Ron Abrams at OACC, and Superintendent Harris of CCS. In September, he will attend meetings with the Delaware Superintendents, and the Delaware Career Center Superintendents. The president and the provost are attending a ribbon-cutting ceremony in Grove City in August.
• Kyle and April Katz, as well as Ron and Ann Pizzuti are hosting receptions for the president in August.

• We were reminded that summer quarter graduation will be on Friday, September 10, at 10:00 a.m. at Veteran’s Memorial.

The president advised that there have been discussions concerning the renovation of Union Hall, and that a full plan will be presented at the September Board meeting. In the meantime, Dr. Snider, Interim Provost, gave a brief history on Union Hall and the programs that are housed there.

Terri Gehr, CFO, presented us with some facts and figures associated with the proposed renovations and reorganization strategies for Union Hall in the future. She stated that the Board will be asked to set aside $8.6 million for this project at the September Board meeting. Renovations are projected to take 4.5 years to complete.

Will Kopp, Vice President, Institutional Advancement, provided a sneak preview of the college’s upcoming advertising strategy and a look at some of the TV spots to air the following week.

OLD BUSINESS:

There were no items to bring before the Board.

NEW BUSINESS:

Taste the Future Fund Raiser

Matt Kelly announced that the upcoming annual fund raiser, “Taste the Future”, is scheduled for September 14, 2010. He asked that everyone help to spread the word that tickets are on sale on the web, and they are soliciting sponsorships beginning at $1,000. The price of the tickets has remained the same.

University System of Ohio

Mr. Dolan noted that Chancellor Fingerhut visited the Committee of the Whole the week prior giving them some key points on the University System of Ohio. He also discussed how two-year colleges can support four-year colleges to help further education opportunities for Ohio. He challenged everyone to think about where there are collaborative opportunities to strengthen Columbus State.
Upcoming Events:

- Board of Regents Annual Retreat – August 25, 2010

- Governance Institute for Student Success (GISS) meetings - September 19 –21, 2010
  Sponsored by ACCT and University of Texas of Austin-- looking for teams consisting of the college president and 3 Trustees to attend.

- Board of Regents is looking for help in the Governance area of the USO working groups.

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION:

Darrell Powers took the floor to speak about the college starting a program whereby students could make payments on classes instead of all at once. He also stated that he wanted to be present for the new president’s first Board meeting.

EXECUTIVE SESSION:

There was no Executive Session

ADJOURNMENT:

There being no further business to come before the Board of Trustees the meeting was adjourned at 7:00 p.m.
