

COURSES DESIGNED WITH VETERAN STUDENTS IN MIND

Available Summer Semester 2017

COLS 1100

First Year Experience Seminar

Lecture: Tuesday 1700 - 1815 Credit Hours: 1

Section: COLS 1100 025 03666

Course Description:

The First Year Experience Seminar provides students with an introduction to the college. It emphasizes skills and resources necessary to be successful in their personal, academic and career-related pursuits. The course includes an orientation to college resources, policies, and processes. Veterans may register directly for this class. If you have any questions, please contact the instructor, Mr. James Gilchrist-Elliott at jellio01@cscc.edu.

Prerequisite: Required course within the first 15 hours at Columbus State Community College.
Lab fee: $2.00

BIO 1111

Introduction to Biology

Lecture: Tuesday & Thursday 1230-1435 Lab: Friday 1230-1515 Credit Hours: 4

Section: BIO 1111 002 04333

Course Description:

This is an introductory course in general biology for the nonmajor. Topics include cell structure and function, bioenergetics, DNA structure and function, biodiversity, ecology and evolution. Sections of this course are H-designated Honors classes. Lecture: 3 hours – Lab: 2 hours. Veterans may register directly for this class. If you have any questions, please contact the instructor, Daniel Peterson at dpeterso@cscc.edu

Prerequisites: High school biology or BIO 0100 and placement into ENGL 1100 or passing the departmental BIO 0100 proficiency test. Lab fee: $20.00