Video Category Guidelines and Rules

Videos must be submitted on, Mini-DV tape or DVD and be available for screening (NTSC only for festival screening).

Please access the DDAF Web site at www.csc.edu/DDAF for a complete list of restrictions concerning entries.

Only one entry is to be on a Mini-DV tape or DVD. Cue tape to start of video. A completed Video Submission Form (offered below) must be taped to the sleeve of each entry.

Videos should aim for a PG or PG-13 rating. Avoid violence, explicit language, and sexual content.

A release form for music must accompany submission.

Videos must have been completed no earlier than May 2008

Narrative short film videos must be 20 minutes or less (recommended length is 15 minutes).

Music videos are open to any music genre and must be 6 minutes or less (recommended length).

Documentary short film videos must be 20 minutes or less.

Up to five submissions per entrant are allowed but each entry requires a separate Mini-DV tape or DVD.

All submitted entries become the property of Columbus State Community College; however, the entrant retains rights to the work.

The Mini-DV tape or DVD is to be labeled with the entrant's name and title of work.

All entries must include the following or they will not be considered for judging.

- MINI-DV or DVD format

- Video synopsis, principal cast/crew list, and brief bio of director

- Each entry is labeled with entrant's name and work's title

- DDAF Submission Form

Entries must be received by 5:00 p.m., May 4, 2009
