The Progressive Peace Coalition Presents

A TEACH-IN:
THE HUMAN COST OF
THE WAR IN IRAQ
1-5 p.m.
Saturday, March 5

Columbus State Community College
550 E. Spring St.
Columbus, OH 43210
West Lounge of Nestor Hall

What has the war cost...

1-2 p.m. ...the Iraqi people?
Ramzi Kysia, an Arab-American activist, writer, and analyst who spent nearly two years in Iraq before, during and after the war is an informed, articulate witness and critic of U.S. policies and their effects in the region.

2:15-3:15 p.m. ...U.S. soldiers, their families and their communities?
Teresa Fowler Dawson, Military Families Speak Out, a central Ohio mother with two children serving in the reserves will speak on the special concerns of our military and their families.

3:30-4:30 p.m. ...the Columbus community?
Charleta B. Tavares, Columbus City Councilwoman and Chair of the Council’s Health, Housing and Human Services Committee, will address the cost of war in terms of the effects of budget cuts on the citizens of Columbus who need city services.

4:30-5:00 p.m. Panel discussion

FREE AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC
Parking available on campus – restrictions not enforced for those attending this event.
Map for Columbus State Community College - http://www.csec.edu/

Light refreshments will be provided.

Sponsored by the CSCC Muslim Student Association and International Student Association, OSU Committee for Justice in Palestine, and the Progressive Peace Coalition.
For more information, please contact kristin_becknell@yahoo.com