Columbus State students who are at risk of experiencing or who have already experienced additional financial expenses as a result of campus disruptions related to the COVID-19 national health emergency can now apply for a Student Emergency Relief Grant from the College. This emergency financial assistance is available for eligible students, and includes support for food, housing, course materials, technology, healthcare and childcare.

To be considered for a Student Emergency Relief Grant, please complete this form by logging in with your student credentials. Terms and conditions apply and are listed on the application form. A College representative may reach out to you for additional information regarding your application.

You will be notified via your Columbus State email account if your grant application is approved for funding.
