A. Preamble

Columbus State Community College (CSCC) has a high standard of conduct for members of its college community, including students. Consistent with the educational mission of the College, Columbus State Community College students are expected to perform all work honestly, maintain prescribed academic standards, pay all debts to the college, and respect the property and rights of others. To ensure the maintenance of an environment conducive to the attainment of the educational mission of Columbus State Community College, the President is authorized to establish such rules and regulations as are deemed appropriate and necessary for the orderly operation of the college. In addition to these rules, the behaviors enumerated under Academic and Behavioral Misconduct may result in penalties up to and including expulsion from the college. Should the concern involve allegations of violations of students’ civil rights by employees, including but not limited to sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, and/or harassment, the matter will be referred to the college’s EEO officer for disposition.

B. Overview of Conduct Expectations

1. The student conduct process at CSCC is not intended to punish students. Rather, it exists to protect the interests of the college community and to challenge those whose behavior is not in accordance with our policies. Sanctions are intended to challenge students’ moral and ethical decision-making and to help them bring their behavior into accord with our community expectations. When a student is unable to conform his/her behavior to community expectations, the student conduct process may determine that he/she should no longer share in the privilege of participating in the CSCC community.

2. Students should be aware that the student conduct process is different from criminal and civil court proceedings. Procedures and rights in student conduct proceedings are conducted with fairness to all, but do not include the same protections of due process afforded by the courts. Due process, within these procedures, assures timely written notice and a hearing before an objective decision-maker.

3. Students continue to be subject to city, state, and federal laws while at CSCC, and allegations, charges or violations of those laws may also constitute violations of the Student Code of Conduct. In such instances, CSCC may proceed with disciplinary action under the Student Code of Conduct independently of any criminal proceeding involving the same conduct and may impose sanctions for violation of the Student Code of Conduct even if such criminal proceeding is not yet resolved or is resolved in the student's favor.

4. No student will be found in violation of CSCC policy without information showing by a preponderance of the evidence that a policy violation occurred. In CSCC’s sole discretion, sanctions will be proportionate to the severity of the violation(s).
C. Jurisdiction of CSCC’s Student Code of Conduct

1. The Student Code of Conduct at CSCC will apply to conduct that occurs on CSCC premises or CSCC property, at any location at CSCC sponsored activities, and in off-campus buildings occupied by students by virtue of their association with a group/organization given formal registration by CSCC. The Student Code of Conduct may also apply off-campus, when the administration determines that the off-campus conduct affects a substantial CSCC interest. A substantial CSCC interest is defined to include:
   a. An allegation, arrest, charge or conviction of a criminal offense as defined by Ohio law, including repeat violations of any local, state or federal law.
   b. Any situation where the student presents a danger or threat to the health or safety of him/herself or others.
   c. Any situation that significantly impinges upon the rights, property or achievements of self or others, or significantly breaches the peace and/or causes social disorder.
   d. Any situation that is detrimental to the educational interests of CSCC.

2. Each student will be responsible for his or her conduct from the time he or she applies for admission until the actual awarding of a degree, including the academic year, during breaks and between academic terms, before classes begin and after classes end, during periods between terms of actual enrollment, and including conduct whether or not discovered until after a degree is awarded. The Student Code of Conduct will apply to a student’s conduct even if the student withdraws from school while a matter is pending.

3. The Student Code of Conduct applies to guests of community members, whose student hosts may be held accountable for the misconduct of their guests. Visitors to and guests of CSCC are also protected by the Student Code of Conduct, and may initiate grievances for violations of the Student Code of Conduct committed against them.

4. Student organizations may be charged with violations of the Code for behavior occurring on or off campus. A student organization and its officers may be held collectively or individually responsible when violations of the Code by those associated with the group or organization have received the tacit or overt consent or encouragement of the leaders, officers, or spokespersons. While student organizations not registered by CSCC are exempt from this Code, student members of such organizations may be held accountable for their behavior under this Code. When considering allegations involving collective responsibility, CSCC may make individual findings with respect to the involvement of each student.

5. CSCC will treat an attempt to commit a violation listed in the Student Code of Conduct as if the attempted conduct had been completed.

6. CSCC reserves the right to initiate an allegation and to initiate conduct proceedings without a formal allegation by the victim or witnesses of misconduct.
7. CSCC will not tolerate intentional false reporting of incidents. It is a violation of the Student Code of Conduct to make a false report of any policy violation or violation of any federal, state, or local law.

8. CSCC community encourages the reporting of Conduct Code violations. To this end and at the sole discretion of CSCC officials, student who may have conduct violations related to the same incident and who report violations may be held less accountable for conduct violations and/or may be provided educational options in such cases.

9. CSCC reserves the right to notify parents/guardians of dependent students regarding any conduct situation when alcohol and/or narcotic/substance/inhalant abuse or violations are suspected. CSCC may contact parents/guardians of dependents or non-dependent students who are under age 21. CSCC may also contact parents/guardians to inform them of situations in which there is an imminent health and/or safety risk.

10. The Dean of Student Life or designee reserves the right to determine whether other CSCC officials have a need to know about individual conduct allegations pursuant to the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA).

11. In accordance with federal law, victims of sexual misconduct and/or sexual harassment incidents have an absolute right to be informed of the outcome and sanctions of the hearing, in writing, without condition or limitation. CSCC may release publicly the name, nature of the violation and the sanction for any student who is found in violation of a CSCC policy that is also a “crime of violence,” including: arson, burglary, robbery, criminal homicide, sex offenses, assault, destruction/damage/vandalism of property and kidnapping/abduction. CSCC may release this information to the victim in any of these offenses regardless of the outcome, but victims are cautioned that FERPA does not permit them to re-release this information to others.

12. Behavior conducted online such as harassment delivered by e-mail can subject students to CSCC conduct action. Blogs, web pages, social networking sites and other modes of electronic communication are in the public sphere, are not private, and can subject a student to allegations of misconduct. CSCC does not seek out this information, but may take action if and when such information is brought to the attention of CSCC officials.

13. Any question of interpretation or application of the Student Code of Conduct shall be referred to the Dean of Student Life or designee for final determination.

14. The Student Code of Conduct shall be reviewed periodically under the direction of the Dean of Student Life or designee. Recommendations for changes will be submitted to Shared Governance as needed.
