College Credit Plus

Earn College Credit with College Credit Plus

Through the College Credit Plus (CCP) Program, students in grades 7-12 can take college courses through Columbus State Community College to earn free college credit and fulfill their high school graduation requirements simultaneously. College courses not only give students the advantage of learning how to meet a college-level standard of academic rigor, they also help offset the cost and time it takes to earn a college degree.

Benefits of college courses through CCP:

- Eligible college classes are offered tuition-free for students
- Students earn college credit while also satisfying high school graduation requirements
- College courses let students expand their academics beyond the traditional high school curriculum
