

Criminal Justice: Probation and Supervision, Associate of Applied Science (A.A.S.)

2018–2019

DESCRIPTION:

This program prepares students to explore and obtain positions in the field of probation, parole, diversion, corrections, and intermediate sanctions. Courses within this plan of study focus on a variety of realms within the system including correctional and supervision administration, institutional operations, community-based corrections, facility operations, counseling and inmate services, juvenile supervision and special category offenders. For more information, see csc.edu/academics/departments/criminal-justice.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS:

This is a non-selective, open-admission program. Students must complete College application process and placement testing.

OTHER REQUIREMENTS:

Students are encouraged to verify summer term financial aid eligibility. Meet with a division advisor to discuss transfer implications for general education course selections. Students must maintain the minimum GPA required by the College.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR GRADUATES:

Career:

Individuals graduating with an A.A.S. in Probation and Supervision normally pursue careers in a variety of criminal justice related fields including but not limited to: probation officer, state parole officer, federal probation/parole officer, U.S. Marshal's Office agent, juvenile probation officer/monitor, community corrections specialist, corrections officer (local or state), corrections manager, corrections treatment specialist, investigator, court officer, court reporter, court officer, and bailiff. The job outlook for these positions is positive. Continuing education opportunities are plentiful with multiple four-year bachelor degree transfer options which will enhance employment eligibility for many of the aforementioned career fields.

Transfer:

This degree may transfer into the following degrees: Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice and Bachelor of Arts in Criminology.
