DTA SELECTION PROCESS

Phase One - Faculty Notification

- Nominated faculty will be notified in early November.
 - Faculty that have received the Distinguished Teaching Award within four academic years previously will be notified of the nomination but are ineligible to continue in the award process.
 - Notification for eligible faculty will include a timeline of the overall DTA review process.
- Nominated faculty who wish to move forward in this process must submit a 1-2 page teaching philosophy by November 20th 9 am.

Phase Two – 1st Nomination Review

- DTA Review Committee members will meet to review all nominations.
 - Up to 25 selected nominees will be asked to continue in the process
 - The committee may designate alternates, in ranked order, in case a candidate withdraws.
- Faculty Notification
 - DTA nominees in the final candidate pool will be notified before the end of Autumn Semester and asked to submit a portfolio for further consideration in the process.
 - Portfolio Guidelines and deadline information will be provided to each candidate.

- Note: Any nominees declining to continue for further consideration may be replaced by the alternates.

Phase Three – Portfolio Submission and Review

- Phase Two candidates must submit a portfolio by 4:30 pm to the HR Department on or before January 31st.
 - See the DTA Nominee Portfolio Guidelines for details on this part of the process.
- DTA Review Committee members will examine all portfolios submitted.
 - Up to ten nominees will be selected as finalists for teaching observations.
 - The finalists will be notified by Spring Break of Spring Semester each year as to Phase Four of the process.

Phase Four – Teaching Observations

- The Review Committee will choose at least one course that each nominee teaches to observe.
 - Nominees being reviewed should be notified at least one week in advance as to the date and time of the observation sessions.
- Finalists Teaching Traditional Courses
 - Each finalist must be observed by a minimum of three DTA Review Committee Members for at least 50 minutes of live classroom presentation.
 - Class presentations may be observed at different days and times by the Review Committee.
 - Finalist may request that the DTA Review Committee meet with them, in addition to the class observation, to share web-enhanced portion of class.
 - Review Committee Members are eligible to obtain subs for their regular classes in order to complete observations in a timely manner.
- Finalists Teaching Web Courses
 - At least three Committee Members will arrange an acceptable day and time for all to meet with the Finalist and complete a web tour of the nominee's course.
 - Review Committee Members are eligible to obtain subs for their regular classes in order to complete this meeting in a timely manner.
 - All Committee Members will be provided access to the Finalist's web class for the same specific week of instruction.
- Award Recipients will be selected by the Review Committee by Week 14 of Spring Semester.
 - The Review Committee should meet to make the final decision based on the group's consensus.
 - Names of the finalists should be forwarded to the Vice-President of Instruction and the HR Department.

Phase Five – Award Presentation

- Recipients will be announced and presented with the award at an appropriate college-wide event.
 - Recipients will receive:
 - Distinguished Teaching Award Plaque
 - A one-time cash bonus of $3,000. (Or as designated in the current Faculty Contract).
 - A reserved parking space of their choice for one semester during the following academic year.

Composition of DTA Review Committee
