MICHAEL YOUNG, LEAD PASTOR, CITY OF GRACE CHURCH

Michael Young serves as the Lead Pastor of City of Grace Church in Columbus, Ohio, where he is recognized for his charismatic leadership, visionary outlook, and entrepreneurial approach to ministry.

Committed to demonstrating the gospel through action, Young extends his influence beyond the pulpit into extensive community service and empowerment initiatives. His involvement includes mentoring inner-city youth and holding board positions with the Columbus Division of Police Chief's Advisory Panel and the Mid-Ohio Food Collective Board of Trustees. A key figure in central Ohio's social justice movement, he actively works on race reconciliation efforts and advocates for policy changes to promote equity.

MUSICAL PERFORMANCE: ANTHONY SAXSON

Born in Columbus, Ohio, Anthony was always surrounded by music. His first calling to music was through his family church. Today, Anthony channels his music through these spiritual roots. His aim is to achieve his calling through musical expression, touching the world, one person at a time.

BARBARA SMITH-ALLEN AND THE DARIUS TORRENCE VISIONARY DREAMER AWARDS

Every year, in celebration of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., the college honors one staff member and one student for their leadership and commitment to creating a diverse campus culture.

2026 NAPOLEON BELL SR. AWARD

This award is presented annually to one Columbus State employee and one Columbus State student who demonstrates ambition, persistence, integrity, service, and support of Columbus State values — qualities embodied by the award's namesake.
