PLUS Loan Application Information For Parent Borrowers

The Federal Direct PLUS (Parent Loan for Undergraduate Students) loan is a loan program for a parent who wishes to access additional resources above what the student is currently eligible to receive. The loan option may cover up to the Cost of Attendance. The PLUS loan is borrowed by the natural or adoptive parent or step parent of a DEPENDENT student. In order for the parent to receive a Federal PLUS loan, the parent may not be in default on a prior education loan and must pass a mandatory credit check performed by the Direct Loan Servicing Center.

The information on this application pertains to the parent who will be the borrower of the loan. The following steps MUST be completed by the student and/or parent borrower:

- _____ Student must have completed the 2021-22 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and the results must be on file with Columbus State.
- _____ Parent borrower must complete the 2021-22 Summer Federal Direct Parent PLUS Loan Application (previous page). Form is to be submitted to Columbus Campus Student Central or Delaware Campus Student Services at the address(es) on the top of the form or may be faxed to 614-287-6112.
- _____ Parent borrower must complete a Master Promissory Note (MPN). The MPN can be completed online at www.StudentLoans.gov. Access the MPN through the link titled: "Sign Master Promissory Note" and follow the prompts to complete the form.
NOTE: To electronically sign the MPN, the parent will need their Department of Education FSA ID. For information on creating and/or updating the parent FSA ID, visit <https://studentaid.ed.gov/sa/fafsa/filling-out/fsaid>.
